

Social Impact Bonds: A Moneyball Approach to Federal Investment

Join Congressmen Todd Young (R-IN) and John Delaney (D-MD) for a discussion of their new, bipartisan "Social Impact Bond Act" (HR 4885) which will help make the federal government more efficient and effective. We will also hear from high-impact nonprofit leaders about how they are using social impact bonds/pay for success tools to spread the most effective, evidence-based, results-oriented solutions. Ready to learn more? Join us!
